

Basic Detail Report

Title Group of Men Standing in the Woods

Date 1900-1920

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description A group of six men stand in a row on the edge of the woods, by a river, during a hunting trip. There are a few trees behind them and behind that, the river. The far bank is covered with trees. Immediately in front of the group is a small grassy clearing. On the left is a big pile of camping gear. To the right is a small collection of wood at the base of a lean-to. There are two axes sticking out of the woodpile.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 3 1/8 × 4 1/8in. (7.9 × 10.5cm)

Sheet (height x width): 3 3/8 × 4 1/2in. (8.6 × 11.4cm)