Description View of Frank Woodbridge Cheney and daughter Ruth Cheney

(Goodwin) in a corner of the library at their house on Hartford Road in South

Manchester, Connecticut. Frank sits in a padded armchair to the left of a window that has its shade pulled down. Ruth sits on his lap. There is a small table to their left, which is covered by a decorative cloth and has books and a lamp on it.

Behind the table, which sits in the corner, there are bookshelves on both sides.

The bottoms of large paintings can be seen, hanging above the shelves. There are knickknacks sitting on top of the shelves.
