

Basic Detail Report

Title Lockwood-Mathews Mansion, Norwalk

Date after 1972

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Photography; color Polaroid instant print on paper

Description Two Polaroid photographs of the Second Empire-style Lockwood-Mathews Mansion in Norwalk, Connecticut. One of the photographs shows part of the second-story turret and its wrought iron balcony, two of the dormer windows, and part of the porch below. The other shows more of the entire facade, with the same turret on the left, a bay window on the first floor of the building, and the decorative iron cresting on the roof.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 1/8 x 3in. (7.9 x 7.6cm)

Sheet (height x width): 4 1/8 x 3 1/2in. (10.5 x 8.9cm)