

Basic Detail Report

Title Hoisting Device, Civic Center

Date 1972

Primary Maker Richard Welling

Medium Drawing; black ink and colored markers on paper

Description Drawing of a piece of construction equipment used for hoisting. The device was used on the Civic Center in downtown Hartford, and consists of ropes, pulleys, and I-beams, surrounded by four pillars. There are men in the background loading materials on to a pallet suspended from a hook.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 13 5/8 x 21 1/4in. (34.6 x 54cm) Sheet (height x width): 13 5/8 x 21 1/4in. (34.6 x 54cm)