

Basic Detail Report

Title Flood of 1936 : North east from Travelers Tower.

Date 1936

Primary Maker F. F. Fisher

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description View from the 8th floor of the Travelers Tower looking north east at the Connecticut River and East Hartford during flood of 1936. Only a small part of the arches on the Bulkeley Bridge is visible. Train tracks and roads running parallel to the river on the Hartford side (near side) are covered by flood waters.

Views of the water coming into Hartford streets.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 11/16 x 9 7/16in. (17 x 24cm)