

Basic Detail Report

Title Putnam Hill, Greenwich.

Date 1834

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description At the right, a road leads across a causeway up a steep hill. A stagecoach is roughly indicated. At the top of the hill, a saltbox house and its outbuildings sit among trees. The slopes of the hill are rocky with scattered trees. In the foreground, a man sketching, possibly a self-portrait of the artist is roughly indicated, seated on a rock in front of a stone wall

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 7 1/2 x 7 7/8in. (19 x 20cm)