

Basic Detail Report

Title South view of Porters Rocks in Mystic in Groton.

Date 1834

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description Two large rocky outcroppings with a lower area between them.

Three buildings are visible between outcroppings and a large building with an

Mystic River is in the foreground. In 1637 Captain John Mason and his men camped on this site the night before they attacked the Pequot Fort, which was about two miles southwest
