

Basic Detail Report

Title Eastern view of the Methodist church and parsonage in Burlington.

Date 1873

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil and ink on paper

Description The Methodist church, a two-story building with a small square tower, is in the center of the composition. The parsonage is to its right. A picket fence surrounds both buildings. A second church and some additional buildings are to the left of the Methodist Church. The narrow tree-lined dirt road probably corresponds to the present Rt. 4

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 8 1/4 x 11in. (21 x 28cm)