

Basic Detail Report

Title North view, Brookfield, Con.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A view of the center of Brookfield. A gentleman stands beside a stone wall on a road in the lower right corner of the composition. A flagpole, with a liberty cap and weather vane, and a hanging tavern sign stand to the right. On the left of the road beside a row of dwellings stands the town house with a spire. Across the street a building with four windows on the side houses the Episcopal Church. The Congregational Church is behind it.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 5 1/2in. (9 x 14cm)