

Basic Detail Report

Title Judge Ellsworth's house, Windsor.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description A view of the Ellsworth House in Windsor. The dwelling stands behind a picket fence and is surrounded by elm trees. A note on the side of the image reads " Ancient Cedar," which according to Barber's text is "about seven feet in girth, which was standing in the forest at the time Windsor was first settled, is still standing a few feet north of the house."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 3/4in. (8 x 12cm)