

Basic Detail Report

Title North view of the borough of Clifton, in Winchester.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description The borough is situated in a narrow valley on the banks of a millstream called Mad River (visible in the lower left of the drawing). The building with the spire in the central part of the drawing is the Methodist Church. Fencing divides the meadows in both the foreground and on the hilly background of the image.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 15/16 x 5 1/8in. (10 x 13cm)