

Basic Detail Report

Title Southeast view of the borough of Essex, Saybrook.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Two men in top hats stand in the foreground, one pointing out toward the point. On the far right is Hill's Academy for higher education, the building to the left with a cupola is the Baptist Church. In the center, separated from the Baptist Church by a row of trees is the Episcopal Church with a high spire and to the right of it is the Methodist Church. Pettipaug Point is down the hill from these buildings.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 1/8 x 4 3/4in. (8 x 12cm)