

Basic Detail Report

Title Sampson Occum's house in Mohegan, Montville.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Small two-story frame house with an addition at the left that is said by Barber to have been used by Sampson Occum as a study. A stone wall is on the left and a cornfield is to the right of the house.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 2 3/8 x 3 15/16in. (6 x 10cm)