

Basic Detail Report

Title Eastern view of Old Well (South Norwalk)

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View of Old Well from the far side of the Norwalk River. Houses and industrial buildings line the shore. A steamboat and a sailing vessel are at the right. Smoke issues from the smokestack of the steamboat and from the chimney of a pottery in the middle of the composition. Two men with a boat are in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 5 1/8in. (9 x 13cm)