Title Churches in East Haven.

Date 1835

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; pencil on paper

Description The Congregational Church is on the left with a "White" spire and a note indicating that it is "Brown, built of stone." The Episcopal Church is the small building with three windows on the right. Notes indicate "stone walls" on either side of the road and a "pear" tree on the far left. The street later became High Street, East Haven.
