

Basic Detail Report

Title J.E. Conlon Meat Market, Torrington.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Large white Victorian house with a porch and a bay window.

Beneath is a brick basement with a sign "J.E. Conlon Meat Market." A well-dressed man and a woman wearing a shawl over a print dress stand on a paved walk beside the house. Two small children, probably boys wearing dresses, are in the side yard. Two open about rriages drawn by horses are at the left, in front of a barn. A woman is driving one of them.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)