

Basic Detail Report

Title M. Backus family, probably Wallingford

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Man and woman seated on a bench in front of a large two-story house with a hip roof and Greek revival details, including pilasters at the corners. A porch wraps around the front and sides. A girl in a plaid dress stands behind the couple. A young woman is seated in a chair to the right, with two small girls in pinafores beside her. A small boy stands farther to the right. Beyond him, two additional girls in dresses and hats appear to be holding bowls. The trees in the yard appear to be hemlocks. The neat walks and drives appear to be paved.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)