

Basic Detail Report

Title H. Belden family, Simsbury.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Two women with dog standing in field beside multi-connected buildings, possibly a house. All buildings are behind one another in a line. Main building on right is stone two-story Italianate with hip roof, double chimneys and windowed cupola; ivy is climbing the wall. Deep roof overhang not supported by brackets; round windows below. Behind is a shorter two-story stone building with a porch having a table and chairs followed by clapboard two-story with stone end on left. Attached behind that is a vertical sided barn with center gable over large sliding door. There is a large, wide platform in front of the barn. Inscription on back: "H. Belden"; "Simsbury"

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)