

Basic Detail Report

Title John Andrews family, Mount Carmel (Hamden)

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description A man, possibly an African American, pushes a lawn mower while a woman sits on a bench and a second man leans on a cane. In the background is a center-gabled house with a brick foundation. The house is painted in contrasting colors. A statuary group, resembling the work of John Rogers, is visible through an open window. In the distance to the right is a second house with attached sheds.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)