

Basic Detail Report

Title Julius S. Cowles family, Farmington.

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Northern Survey Company

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Family on porch of two-story clapboard Georgian house with hip roof, dentil molding, two chimneys and louvered shutters. Porch is full front and right side of house and has metal roof, slender columns on high plinth base and large stylized Ionic capitals with stone block foundation and stone or concrete steps. On front porch is bearded man with cane wearing a tall hat sitting in rocking chair; two women and a girl. On side porch is woman, girl sitting on porch and boy standing in front. There is a stool on the side porch behind the woman and at the right end, a multi-tiered shelf stand. A picket fence is on the right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 8 11/16in. (16 x 22cm)