

Basic Detail Report

Title Stagecoach on a dirt road, Plainville or Farmington

Date about 1885

Primary Maker William Alderige

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Stagecoach drawn by two horses. The driver wears work clothes and a cap. A large number of young men in suits and bowler or straw hats crowd the top of the coach. Utility poles are visible in the background. A field or meadow is beyond a fence at the right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 5/16 x 6 11/16in. (11 x 17cm)