

Basic Detail Report

Title American Homecrafts Company, New Haven

Date about 1920

Primary Maker F. H. Simonds

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Reproduction of paintings, including The Angelus by J. F. Millet, sculptures, and bas-reliefs, including Washington Crossing Delaware by Emmanuel Leutze, and framed photographs of the Roman Forum and the Colosseum. Raised design, probably tin, on ceiling with hanging electric light.

Back wall has sample panels of wallpaper designs and on left is window with sign "Wallpaper," "Entrance Next Door." Patterned rug near door. Inscription on back: "American Homecrafts Company" "Exhibits, New Haven"

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 11/16 x 10 1/4in. (22 x 26cm)