

Basic Detail Report

Title Camp Comfort, Ridgefield

Date 1890

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Three men pose in front of a large striped canvas tent in a grove of trees. A sign on the tent reads: "Camp Comfort / Ridgefield / Conn. / L.C.

Seymour / W.H. Gilbert." Two of the men sit in folding chairs. One stands, holding a rifle. All three men have mustaches. One has a beard. Three dogs, two of them hound dogs, are with the men. At the left, is a kerosene lantern, fishing poles and fishing net. There are large rocks in the background and a tree stump and a ladderback chair in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/16in. (13 x 18cm)