

Basic Detail Report

Title Eagle Drum Corps, Southington

Date 1880-1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Ten young men and boys in band uniforms pose in front of a barren hilltop. Two young men have mustaches. One of them, evidently the bandleader or conductor, wears a military style coat with epaulettes. Some band members hold fifes. Five drums and a baton are on the ground. One of the drums is inscribed: "Eagle Drum Corps / Southington, CT." A man stands beside a flag on the summit of the hill in the background.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/2 x 7 7/8in. (14 x 20cm)