

Basic Detail Report

Title The Fire Museum, Manchester

Date after 1990

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photograph; colored inks on paper

Description Photograph of the Fire Museum in Manchester, Connecticut. The Italianate building, a former firehouse, is depicted from the front and the left side, with the double garage facing the street. There is a tower on its left side. In the bottom left is a sign announcing, "Fire Museum / Connecticut Firemen's / Historical Society." In the foreground on the left is a street sign for Pine Street and Hartford Road.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 9 3/8 x 14 7/8in. (23.8 x 37.8cm) Sheet (height x width): 11 x 17in. (27.9 x 43.2cm)