

Basic Detail Report

Title First relief, Columbia camping party

Date 1895

Primary Maker Edward B. Owen

Medium Photography; cyanotype on paper

Description Group of young men and women all wearing hats at a camp kitchen.

A camp stove made of rocks with a metal chimney has pots and pans on it. Two crates are stacked at right for use as a table. A pan, a large plate and a cup are on the crates. A man at the left holds an axe.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 3/4 x 7 7/8in. (12 x 20cm)