

Basic Detail Report

Title Upper State Street, Hartford, December 4, 1896

Date 1896

Primary Maker H. O. Warner

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Three men stand in the middle of State Street near a curve in the trolley tracks. A man holding what appears to be a rake appears to be African American. He wears a cap and jacket. Commercial buildings line the street in the background. A sign reads: "Elihu Geers Sons / City Directory." Other businesses have awnings. One building has a small balcony above the entrance. At the far right is a small building with a pediment and a classical portico.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 7/8in. (13 x 20cm)