

Basic Detail Report

Title Windham House, Windham

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Two-story frame hotel building. The roof of the first story porch is supported by brackets. A sign on the second story reads: "Windham House." A tavern sign hangs from a free-standing post at the left front corner. Three women, three men, and two small boys stand on the porch. A fourth man holds a horse. A barn or carriage house is at the right. Small trees are surrounded by stakes, presumably to protect their trunks. Inscribed on back: "Windham House (tavern)."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 3/4 × 7 7/8in. (12 × 20cm)