Description View of a five-story neo-classical commercial building with sculptured window spandrels. A large marquee and an electric sign protrude over the theater at the right. These signs read: "New / Palace" and "Wm. Fox Presents / The Cockeyed World / Direct from Roxy." Striped awnings are over storefronts and shop windows. Other signs read: "Emmons-Fox, Inc. / Clothiers Furnishers / and / Hatters." "Waldorf Lunch" "Luncheonette - Candy" "Thom McAn." Automobiles are parked beside the sidewalk. A fire hydrant is on the corner. A bicycle leans against a lamppost. The street is paved and has painted crosswalks. Center Congregational Church is visible at the far right. An American flag is at the right near the Thom McAn store.
