Title Holley Manufacturing Company, Lakeville (Salisbury)

Date about 1890

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Three-story industrial building with a flagpole and a cupola containing a bell. The upper story is a clerestory. A sign reads: "Holley M'F'G Co."

Smaller frame buildings at left and right are painted in the same contrasting colors as the main building. A woman and five men stand near the door in the left building. Some men wear aprons. Two men stand on a pushcart leaning

The buildings are reflected in a mill pond. A dirt road crosses the stone dam.

Machinery, presumably for regulating the water level, is visible.
