

Basic Detail Report

Title Yellow Tavern on the Connecticut River, Windsor Locks

Date 1893

Primary Maker Kate L. Hayden

Medium Drawing; pencil on wove paper

Description Three-story frame structure partially obscured by trees has two chimneys. The corner of a frame building is to the right. Rocks, trees, and shrubs are along the bank of the Connecticut River. Two small boats are on the water. One is probably a rowboat, the other a canoe.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 8 1/4 x 9 13/16in. (21 x 25cm)