Title Windham Center

Date 1815

Primary Maker Laura Webb

Medium Drawing; watercolor and charcoal on laid paper

Description View of the buildings of Windham center near the Green. The houses have red roofs and most appear to be of frame construction. One house, to the right, is painted yellow. To the left, one building is painted red. The brown building in the center may be the brick house of Colonel Elderlun on North Street. Other houses on North Street included the Colonel Dyer House and the Colonel Chappell Residence. Dirt roads, stone walls, rail fences, trees and fields surround the houses.
