

Basic Detail Report

Title Pavilion Family School, Hartford

Date 1861

Primary Maker Henry John Van-Lennep

Medium Drawing; watercolor and Chinese white over pencil on wove paper

Description Structure, possibly stone or masonry, in the Greek Revival style has Roman Tuscan columns, two entry porches, dormer with balustrade, and brick foundation. The house has louvered windows, a fanlight, cellar windows, and oval window. On the dirt road to the left is a carriage and horse with a dog nearby. A woman with parasol sits in the back seat and a man with whip drives the carriage. Four women and one man are leaving the house. In the background are outbuildings, probably a barn and carriage house. To the right are hills, trees, and grass.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 9 13/16 x 14 3/16in. (25 x 36cm)