

Basic Detail Report

Title Indian-style play shirt

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Clark Chester Huntington

Medium Cotton, suede, plastic

Description Red cotton twill boy's shirt with snap front closure and uncuffed sleeves, decorated with blue trim (some of which is faded) along the front placket, over the shoulders, down the arm, around the bottom hem and at the bottom of each sleeve. Attached to the blue trim is suede fringe of varying lengths. The long fringe is decorated with plastic beads while portions of the blue trim are further enhanced with beading sewn on by hand. Worn by Clark, Mary or Walter Huntington of Windsor, Connecticut.