

Basic Detail Report

Title Indian-style trousers

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Walter Treadway Huntington

Medium cotton twill, suede, plastic

Description Pair of buttoned fly-front trousers in red twill with belt loops at the waist. Sewn along each side seam is a broad band of navy twill, one side of which is decorated with suede fringe. Blue twill bands and suede fringe are also sewn near the bottom hem of each leg. Toward the bottom of the band on the sides and along the front of each leg are sewn colored beads in a vine-like design. Patch pocket on the seat. Sewn with yellow-colored thread. Probably worn by either Walter or Mary Huntington. Possibly homemade.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (inseam length) 19 1/2 x (Waist) 26 1/2in. (49.5 x 67.3cm)