

Basic Detail Report

Title Indian-style play shirt

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Clark Chester Huntington

Medium cotton twill, suede, metal, plastic

Description Red twill shirt with navy blue collar and front placket. Navy blue twill bands extend from the shoulder to the cuff of the sleeve with another band along the sleeve hem. Also a navy band from the shoulder to the middle of the chest, about halfway between the front and the side. Each navy band is further decorated with suede fringe. Along the front placket near the bottom, along the bottom band of twill at the hem, along the navy band on the sleeve and at the ends of the navy bands coming from the shoulder over the chest are multi-colored beads sewn on by hand. Some of the stitching is loose. Worn by CWlater, Mary or Clark Huntington of Windsor, Connecticut.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Neck length) 20 1/2 x (Shoulder width) 12 1/2in. (52.1 x 31.8cm)