

Basic Detail Report

Title War Office of Gov. Trumbull

Date 1880-1910

Medium albumen print on cardboard

Description Photograph of a gambrel-roofed, shingled bulding with an off-center chimney . Stone path and steps lead to a simple framed two-panel door with one window on eatiher side, and a third window to the right. One small, bare tree is in front of the building. A printed border surroungs the image. Identified as The war office of Governor Jonathan Trumbull in Lebanon, Connecticut, used during the Civil War and now a museum.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 10 7/8 × (Width) 13in. (27.6 × 33cm)

Photographt: (Height) 6 3/4 × (Width) 8 3/4in. (17.1 × 22.2cm)