

Basic Detail Report

Title Doll's Dress

Date 1899-1908

Medium linen; cotton

Description A doll's dress that was used as a teaching aid in a sewing course taught by Caroline Huntington in Hartford Public Schools, 1899-1908. The dress is made of cream linen with a bottle pattern in blue. A large triangular collar that has the same pattern and the edges are lined with a blue embroidered line. The blue embroidered line is also on the sleeve cuffs, the waist, and along the hem. The waist is ruched.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length): 15in. (38.1cm)