

Basic Detail Report

Title Hartford, Connecticut Consistory badge

Date about 1910

Primary Maker F. I. Gorton Co.

Medium brass; enamel paint

Description A badge for the Connecticut Consistory, 32nd degree of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, in 1910. The top of the badge has a pin and the emblem of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, consisting of a two-headed eagle with the number "32" in the center. The eagle is standing on a perch with a banner underneath inscribed with "SPES MEA IN DEO EST." The bottom piece of the badge is a cross-like shape with a red background and gold detailing. Inscribed on this piece is "CONNECTICUT/ CONSISTORY/ HARTFORD/ 1910/ A/ A/ S/ R."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 2 1/2 × 1 1/8in. (6.4 × 2.9cm)