

Basic Detail Report

Title Badge

Primary Maker C. G. Braxmar Co.

Medium brass; enamel paint

Description A badge for the Clark Commandery No. 7 of the Knights Templar in Waterbury, Conn. The badge is two pieces connected by three chain links. The top piece is in the shape of drapery with a crown on top with "K T" inscribed on each end. The bottom piece is in the shape of a banner with three tassels hanging from the bottom. The bottom piece has enamel decoration with black drapery at the top and a relief bust of an unidentified man in the center.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 3 1/4 × 1 5/8in. (8.3 × 4.1cm)