

Basic Detail Report

Title Elinor Righter in Italy

Date 1944-1945

Primary Maker Elinor Righter

Description Thirteen black and white photographs taken in Italy during World War II. (.99): Photograph of A. R. Vlahakis of Bakersfield, California. (.100):

Photograph of an unidentified man, Naples, 21 July 1945 (.101): Photograph of Bill Butler of Wellsboro, Pennsylvania (.102): View of Cerignola taken from the roof of the American Red Cross Club, Cerignola, Italy. (.103): View of Cerignola taken from the roof of the American Red Cross Club, Cerignola, Italy. (.104):

Service portrait photograph of Phil Kirtley. (.105): Group photograph of Yugoslavian and American airmen. The Yugoslavian airmen recently flew to Italy to escape the unrest in the Balkan region. (.106): Group photograph of Yugoslavian airmen who recently flew to Italy to escape the unrest in the Balkan region. (.107): Photograph of two men identified on the reverse as "Hutch" and Bennett. (.108): Service portrait photograph of Lt. Bob Turner (.109):

Photograph of a boy and four men, including Capt. Mitchell Tom of the 743rd

Bombardment Squadron, 455th Group. (.110): People sitting at tables at the American Red Cross Club. The woman at left is likely Elinor Righter. (.111):

Photograph of Jo [last name illegible], Peter Grant, Tom Jones, and Elinor

Righter at an Italian antiquity site, June 1945. (.112): View of the Antonio

Pavoncelli Villa, Cerignola, Italy