

Basic Detail Report

Title Painting on Silk Workshop with Ilka Robles

Date 2002 June 15

Primary Maker Ilka Robles

Medium photograph

Description On June 15, 2002, Ilka Celeste Robles-Torres instructed participants in painting on silk using traditional Taíno designs from Puerto Rico as part of CCHAP's Traditional Arts Workshops for Adults and Older Teens. (.1) Photo of a workshop participant painting Atabey, the Taíno goddess of water and fertility. (.2) Photo of teacher Ilka Robles showing an example of a Taíno figure design. (.3-.4) Photos of a workshop participant painting a Taíno figure design. (.5) Photo of workshop participants sketching a Taíno design. (.6) Photo of two finished pieces of Taíno artwork on silk. (.7) Photo of workshop participants working on their silk designs. (.8-.9) Photos of Ilka Robles instructing students. (.10) Photo of workshop participants sketching a Taíno design. (.11) Photo of workshop participant Glaisma Perez Silva working on her painting. (.12) Photo of workshop participants working on their silk designs. (.13) Photo of Ilka Robles instructing students. (.14-.15) Photos of workshop participants sketching a Taíno design.