

Basic Detail Report

Title The Shepherdess of the Alps

Date 1815-1820

Medium Drawing; watercolor and pricked paper in frame

Description Watercolor drawing, "The Shepherdess of the Alps," done by Bethiah Mason as a school girl. The shepherdess is sitting under a large tree with a crook, tending sheep whose fleece was made by pricking holes in the paper.

There are hills in the background and a large house on the right. Gold frame.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 19 × 23 1/2in. (48.3 × 59.7cm)