

Basic Detail Report

Title SNEAP Year 18 Presentation: Lao Temple Carving

Date 2016 September 25

Primary Maker Khoutavong Yongchaiyuth

Medium born digital photography

Basic Detail Report

Description Photographs from a required public presentation by the Year 18 apprenticeship team in Lao Buddhist temple art and masonry. The apprenticeship featured teaching artist Khoutavong and apprentice monks Xiao Phommachack and Somchan Onsopha. The images show constructions and carvings on the grounds of the Wat Lao Ariyamettaram temple in Morris,

Connecticut. 2015.196.393.1-.5: Images of statues and sculptures being constructed by Khout and apprentices on the temple grounds. 2015.196.393.6-.7:

Images of a new Buddhist shrine building being constructed. 2015.196.393.8:

Image of a Buddhist house of worship that Khout recently built on the temple grounds. 2015.196.393.9-.12: Images of decorative fetures on the new building.

2015.196.393.13-.14: Images of the deity sculptures on the temple grounds.

2015.196.393.15: Image of two animal sculptures. 2015.196.393.16: Image of flags and flowering shrubs along driveway. 2015.196.393.17-.19: Images of devotional statues outside on the temple grounds. 2015.196.393.20: Image of an altar with a Buddha statue inside the house of worship on the temple grounds.

2015.196.393.21-.23: Images of the apprentices, monks Xiao and Somchan.

2015.196.393.24: Image of decorative molds for masonry carvings.

2015.196.393.25-.26: Images of decorative elements of temple buildings.

2015.196.393.27: Image of the apprentices, monks Xiao and Somchan.