

Basic Detail Report

Title Commemorative Coin

Date 1967

Medium metal [possibly brass]

Description Commemorative coin for the 100th Anniversary of Connecticut

Valley Hospital, 1867-1967. Front features two stalks of wheat framing a caduceus intertwined with the Greek letter "psi". Back features a large box with "1867" engraved on it, with "1967" just below. A small gardening spade rests against the left end of the box. Above the box is a group of people standing on a hill, to the right of a canon. The canon points to the left. Down the hillside to the left are two small trees. The coin is brassy-yellow in color.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (diameter): 1 5/16in. (3.3cm)