

Basic Detail Report

Title Mythological Scene 2

Primary Maker Charles Noel Flagg

Medium Painting; oil on wood

Description Wooden panel that was part of a four-panel door. With 1974.71.1 it comprises one picture. 1974.71.2 is a mythological ocean scene. The background is mostly water in light green tones with hints of white froth. The main part of the painting is a male figure clothed in a green loincloth, holding a scepter over his head in his right hand, and holding the reins of the two horse-like animals from 1974.71.1. He is standing in a shallow scalloped seashell, which is being drawn along the water by the horses. In the lower left corner is the head of a sea animal, which is blowing water from its nostrils.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 37 1/8 × 10in. (94.3 × 25.4cm)