

Basic Detail Report

Title Frederick A. Taft With Dog

Date 1853

Medium Painting; oil on canvas in frame

Description Portrait, attributed to Sarah Pope, of Frederick A. Taft as a boy with a large black dog named Major (nameplate on his collar). The full-length painting shows Taft standing with his left knee bent and his foot resting on the dog, his left hand holding the dog's left ear. He holds a whip in his right hand. He is wearing a plaid dress with short sleeves and white cuffs, white pantaloons, white stockings, black shoes, a black belt with a gold buckle, and a white ruffled collar. There is a tree behind him and a landscape view in the distance.

Dimensions Stretcher (height x width): 51 1/8 × 39 1/8in. (129.9 × 99.4cm)