

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Winifred Carter

Date 2001 February 2

Primary Maker Winifred Carter

Medium digitized audio cassette tape

Description (a-c) Audio cassette tape of an interview with Winifred Carter, who was interviewed by Fiona Vernal on February 2, 2001. (d) Black and white portrait photograph of Winifred Carter. Topics discussed include Carter's childhood in the Bahamas, her mother's death and her father remarrying; Nassau, Bahamas in the 1940s; coming to the United States; her thoughts on the U.S.; networking with local Blacks; socializing with West Indians in the 1960s; leaving her domestic work job to become a nurse's aid at Saint Francis Hospital in Hartford in 1950; marriage; finding a job that doesn't require her to live-in; meeting her husband in church; joining the Women's Auxiliary of the West Indian Social Club in 1972; activities and programs at the West Indian Social Club; and generational differences. 2013.26.19a-c consists of one side, the tape, and a J-card. 2013.26.19d: photograph

Dimensions Duration: 46 Minutes, 57 Seconds