

Basic Detail Report

Title Interview with Barbara P. Lindo

Date 2001 May 23

Primary Maker Barbara P. Lindo

Medium digitized audio cassette tape

Description (a-c) Audio cassette tape of an interview with Barbara P. Lindo, who was interviewed by Fiona Vernal on May 23, 2001. She was interviewed at The Barbadian Club. Her uncle, Martin Roach, was present for her interview. (d)

Black and white portrait photograph of Barbara Lindo. Topics discussed include Lindo's family and her childhood in Barbados; the centrality of the church in a strict upbringing; her father coming to the U.S. on contract labor; the success of her siblings; going to England after her father's death in the U.S.; her father's labor contract; Lindo migrates to the U.S.; her expectations of America; the cold climate; her accent; her job as a waitress and experiencing racism; her motivations for staying in Hartford include work, marriage, and family; the West Indian Social Club; the American public's unfamiliarity with other islands besides Jamaica; considering returning to Barbados; the possibility of retiring in Barbados; generational changes and differences; the Barbadian Club; cricket; becoming the first woman president of the Barbadian Club; and Barbadian sayings and proverbs. 2013.26.33a-c consists of one side, the tape, and a J-card.

2013.26.33d: photograph

Dimensions Duration: 43 Minutes, 54 Seconds