

Basic Detail Report

Title Military Camp, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography; color slide on plastic in cardboard mount

Description Color mounted slides of military camp during the Korean War, 1952-1953. (.137-.138) Two military vehicles driving up a dirt road on snowy mountains with camp supplies on a foggy day. Bare trees are seen on both sides of the path. (.139) Landscape view of snowy mountains on a foggy day. (.140) A group of men playing cards in a military camp. Three camp tents are in the background in front of trees and hills. A volleyball net stands in the middle of the camp. (.141) Soldiers in uniform and steel helmets standing in a military camp. Tents are seen in the background in front of trees and hills. (.142) Landscape view of mountains on a foggy day. (.143) A military helicopter sitting in a field in front of hills. Towards the front of the aircrafts tail is the U.S. Air Force National Star Insignia, which is a white five-pointed star in a dark blue circle with white bars on each side of the blue circle and red stripes in the middle of each white bar. At the end of the tail is a number that reads in yellow text, "12486." (.144) A uniformed soldier with a steel helmet and a baseball glove on his left hand is preparing to catch a ball. Vehicles and camp tents are seen in the background.